

Dance Performances

Audiences of all ages will delight in this diverse repertoire of lively folk and elegant court dance featuring masterful performances by a 30-member ensemble and a colorful array of richly-detailed costumes, masks, and props.

Festivals and Parades

Age-old rituals from rural Cambodia come alive through spirited re-creations of village life. See how Khmer farmers harvest crops, how children celebrate peace and harmony, and how young adults balance custom and courtship while fishing by the river's edge.

Experience the cherished traditional art known as Cambodia's royal ballet. In a dazzling display of style and choreography, dancers retrace steps that are more than one thousand years old.

Programs and Fees

Full Performance (One 1-hour set)	$1,500
Extended Performance (One 90-minute or two 1-hour sets)	$2,200
45-Minute Performance	$1,200
30-Minute Performance	$ 900
20-Minute Performance	$ 600
Single and multi-day educational workshops and artist-in-residence programs negotiated upon request. Fees begin at:	$ 250

Travel fee may be required.

The Angkor Dance Troupe is listed on the Massachusetts and New England States Touring Rosters. Financial assistance for eligible presenters is available from the New England Foundation for the Arts.

For more information, please contact the Angkor Dance Troupe at (978) 441-9277.

Educational Workshops